We welcome you to our church today. We sincerely hope that you will receive a blessing from the service. If you would like a visit from our Minister, or if our Church Stewards can help in any way, please let us know.

Coffee and tea will be served following this morning's service, please stay and join us. The Traidcraft Stall will be in the dining room after the service.

A Christmas Carol

A group of us are thinking of going to see the presentation of A Christmas Carol at The Priestley Centre, Bradford, on Friday 16 December at 7.30 pm.

If you would like to come with us please let us know today.

Declan is in the play and his mum and dad are in charge of the performance.

Ann Walls.

Thank You

We have received a letter from the Blenheim Project, thanking us for the gifts from last Sunday's service. An extract from the covering letter:

"The gifts really do brighten the lives of the women and children who live in the hostel, many of whom find Christmas a particularly distressing time."

Please see the full letter on the notice board.

Preaching Plan

Copies of the new preaching plan for January through to April 2006, are now available from the table in the entrance.

Services in December

The Carol Service is at 6pm next Sunday (18 December).

On Christmas Day the service will start at 10am.

On New Years Day, the Sunday service will be at 4pm at Eldwick, for which lifts will be arranged if required.

Christian Aid

The Lawnswood Singers Choir Concert raised £205 for the charity.

Thank you to all those who supported the event. Anne, Sheila and John.

Community Centre

There are a few places left for the Community Centre Christmas Lunch, on Wednesday 14 December. Price £6.50. If you are interested, please see Margaret.

Lost and Found

There are several unclaimed cake tins, containers and dishes left after the Christmas Fayre. After the service, they will be on a trolley in the dining room. Please take any that belong to you.

Thanks, Lindsay.

Next Week's Notices
