We welcome you to our church today. We sincerely hope that you will receive a blessing from the service. If you would like a visit from our Minister, or if our Church Stewards can help in any way, please let us know.

Coffee and tea will be served following this morning's service, please stay and join us.

Christmas Fayre

Setting up: Church will be open from 6pm Friday (18 November) to set up tables for the Christmas Fayre the next day. If you are helping on a stall, please could you come to set up, decorate stalls and price items that evening.

Items for sale: If you have anything to sell on the stalls, please can you let us have it by Friday evening at the latest (apart from baking) - priced if possible.

Cake stall: Cakes and other items of home baking and produce will be very much appreciated for the cake stall. These can be brought on Saturday morning, if you wish.

Refreshments: These will be available throughout the Fayre. We would be very grateful for items of baking, eg tray bakes, buns, cakes to slice, which can be sold on the refreshments stall.

Thank you all very much.

Gift Service - Advance Notice

Our annual Gift Service for the Blenheim Project will take place on Sunday 4 December. The staff at Blenheim Project have suggested suitable gifts could be:

Items for teenage mums; toys or other items for 10-12 year old boys, eg T shirts; toiletries for mums; just a few toys (the previously have been swamped with toys and they have no storage space).

Flower Rota

Thank you to all who have provided flowers for the Church during 2005. They are very much appreciated by the congregation and by the recipients after the service.

I will be doing the Flower Rota for 2006 at the end of November, so if anyone would like any changes making, please get in touch with me before then.

Thank you all once again, Pam Butterfield.

Dinner Dance

During the evening there will be a raffle. If you would like to donate a prize, please see Jean or David Varley.

Coffee Money

The coffee money for the quarter July to September amounted to £141.91, which will be donated to Home Missions.

The coffee money for the current quarter will be donated to the King Jesus Charity Home, Kumasi, Ghana.

NCH

Once again, I have some NCH diaries to sell, price £2 each. If anyone would like one, please see me.

Thank you, Sheila.

Christmas Quiz

As part of their Christmas Tree Festival (please see the poster on the notice board), Eldwick Methodist Church are holding a Christmas Quiz - with music and supper - on Saturday 3 December. They would like each church in the circuit to enter a team of six, so..... any volunteers for a quiz team?

Tickets are £5 each, including hot supper and musical entertainment. Proceeds to church funds and charity. Some spectator tickets are also available. Please see me if you are interested.

Thanks, Lindsay.
