Eldwick Gala

We have booked to have a stall in aid of church funds at Eldwick Gala on Saturday 28 June. We are requesting gifts of homemade cakes, jams, marmalade and pickles to sell on the stall.

We are also having a Sweet Tombola and would appreciate packets or tubes of sweets for this. As we are hoping for a nice sunny day we have decided not to have chocolate this year.

Church Life

A copy of the minutes from the recent meeting is on the notice board in the inner entrance hall.

Blenheim

At our recent Church Life meeting, it was decided that we will continue to support Blenheim with donations of food & the other items that they are in need of. We intend to reassess the situation in the next few weeks. Instead of sending our donations of food to Bingley Food Bank & Keighley Salvation Army, instead they will go to Blenheim. The extra items that Blenheim have requested are toiletries to put into welcome packs for new residents and pillows, duvets and bedding.

If any one feels that they still wish to contribute to the Food Bank, donations can be taken direct to Bingley Arts Centre on any Tuesday or Friday between 10.30a.m. & 12.00 noon.

We hope you will support our decision, but please be assured that we will continue to be involved with Bingley Food Bank. If you require any further information, please speak to Barbara Beardmore. Thank you.
