On the Notice Board in the Inner Entrance there is a list regarding the Door Stewarding for the Flower Festival Weekend. Door Stewards are required at the Main doors and in the Upstairs Room where we will be having an exhibition. If you feel you can help please put your name against the times which you can do.

Refreshments

Helpers are required on the Refreshment Table over the weekend. Please see Mignon if you can help. Again it doesn't have to be all day, shift workers are welcome.

Mignon is also looking for bakers to stock the tables over the weekend. If you can assist with traybakes, scones, cupcakes, cakes etc it would be appreciated. Also puddings are required for the lunchtimes. Please see Mignon if you can assist.

The list is still on the Inner Notice Board if you feel you can do a display.

Why are we here ? (part seven)

Considering John's close connection with Bingley, Methodism was slow to establish itself here. My own impression is that John's friendship with royalty and Lady Huntingdon didn't always go down well. Also in Bingley he was well in with the vicar and preached in the Parish Church where he appears on a stained glass window. He dined with the Busfields and stayed with the Ferrands at St Ives, when most people would be tenants of them. The C.of E. was seen to be keeping people in their places so was John a man of the people? Some Methodists here, including a local preacher broke away from the fledgling Church and started the Baptists, who would be free from such a background but finally in 1770 Bingley had it's own Chapel.

Notice Boards

Please keep looking at our Notice Boards around church, in the entrances and in the Small Hall, as posters are put up as they come in to us.
