Children and the Church

A three year old went to church with his grandmother for the first time. The collection plate came around, and he was heard to whisper, "You don't have to pay for me, Gran, I'm not five yet".

"God's back" said five year old David. "Where's He been?" I asked. "He's been to France". "How do you know?" "Well the teacher said 'Have a good holiday James, and God go with you', and James came back to school this morning".
