Changes in the Circuit

We are pleased to tell you that Deacon Jacky Fowler is starting work in our Circuit in September. She is currently working in London.

We also have a Probationary Minister who is interested in coming to Yorkshire. He is a married man with one daughter and he is at Queen's College in Birmingham at the moment. He will be visiting us shortly to have a look at the Circuit and we hope he will like what he sees.

Church Council News

We are very pleased to announce that Bryn Morgan has agreed to take on the role of Church Council Secretary. Thank You Bryn. He will work with Pam H for the next Church Council meeting which is on Wednesday 17 February at 7.30 pm.

Any reports for this meeting should be emailed to Pam Helyar by 31 January in order that they can be put together and distributed before the meeting.

The Small Change Box

The box has been emptied once again and this time contained £12.00 which when split means £4.00 for each of our three missions, World, Home and JMA.

Thank you to everyone who contributes, every little helps.

Taking out the Church Flowers

On the Notice Board in the Inner Entrance is a list with dates on for each Sunday in the year. If you can assist with taking the Flowers which have been in Church to someone who would appreciate being remembered by our church would you please put your name by a date (or dates) as that would be a big help. If the giver of the flowers know someone who would like them please make sure that Ann knows before the service starts.

1lb Jam Jars

If anyone has any clean 1lb jam jars, preferably with the labels already off, would you please bring them to church as our stock of jars is very low. No jars—no marmalade!!
